FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Caltrans to Unveil District 7 Fallen Workers Memorial Interchange

Caltrans to honor employees who have lost their lives in the line of duty

WHO: Assemblymember Luz Rivas, 39th District
Los Angeles Councilwoman Monica Rodriguez, 7th District
Caltrans District 7 Director John Bulinski
Caltrans Chief Deputy Director Ryan Chamberlain

WHAT: The Foothill Freeway (I-210) and Golden State Freeway (I-5) interchange in Los Angeles County will be dedicated as the Caltrans District 7 Fallen Workers Memorial Interchange.

The District 7 Fallen Workers Memorial Interchange, dedicated to those who served California as transportation professionals and made the highest sacrifice while performing their duties on the state highway system, will serve as a reminder to the motoring public to be cognizant of highway workers who work on state right of way.

Statewide, since 1921 Caltrans has lost 188 employees. Thirty-two of those employees killed in the line of duty worked in District 7. Highway construction and maintenance work is one of the most dangerous occupations in the United States.

WHEN: Thursday, November 1, 2018 at 10 a.m.

WHERE: Caltrans District 7 Shop
13204 Golden State Road
Sylmar, CA 91342
